Molest case sentencing postponed

The sentencing of a former Salinas scoutmaster who molested a teen-age boy was delayed for three months while the man's state of mind is evaluated by officials.

Judge Richard M. Silver ordered Wayne S. Booth committed to the Vacaville State Mental Facility for testing on Thursday. Psychiatric report will be sent to Silver before Booth is sentenced in Monterey County Superior Court. No date has been set.

Booth, a scoutmaster for Troop 45 in Salinas, was arrested Oct. 7 after he took three boys, ages 10, 15 and 16, on an outing at the San Antonio Lake Campgrounds. Booth admitted his molested the 16-year-old after giving alcohol to the youths, according to court records.

Booth had been a scoutmaster since 1979. A Boy Scouts spokesman said the boys were not scouts and the trip was not sanctioned by the Boy Scouts of America.

Man pleads guilty to molestation charge

A 22-year-old Salinas scoutmaster pleaded guilty Wednesday to charges that he molested a 16-year-old boy.

Wayne Spowyer Booth II, a scoutmaster for Troop 45 in Salinas, had been charged with child abuse and contributing to the delinquency of a minor. He will be sentenced Jan. 6.

Booth was arrested Oct. 7 after he took three boys, ages 16, 15 and 10, on an outing at the San Antonio Lake Campgrounds. While at the campground, Booth admitted, he molested the 16-year-old by oral copulation after giving all three alcohol to drink.

Booth, a scoutmaster since 1979, made no statement at his court appearance. Asked by Silver what he had done to the boy, Booth said nothing and allowed Assistant Public Defender Fred Harro to give the details.

Bob Lambert, assistant scout executive for Monterey County, stressed Wednesday that the outing was not sanctioned by the Boy Scouts of America, who require that two adults be present on such occasions, and that the boys involved were not scouts themselves.

Booth's troop, which is sponsored by the Salinas Rotary Club, is still "going strong," Lambert said.

Ron Granberg, a lawyer for the owners of the Sonora Cafe, 59 E. Market St., said the measures are tantamount to overkill. He said state liquor laws already provide a means for the city to oppose the issuance of alcohol permits.

"There's no reason to have two separate processes," Granberg said.

But Commissioner Robert Taylor said the city's redevelopment plans could be shunted aside in the state's decision-making process on liquor licenses.

"I wonder if the Alcoholic Beverage Control Department would take into consideration the redevelopment goals of the city," he said.

Scoutmaster arrested in case involving minor

A 32-year-old Salinas man appeared in Monterey County municipal court Wednesday after his arrest on suspicion of child abuse and contributing to the delinquency of a minor, said Sheriff's Lt. Ken Hansen.

Wayne Spowyer Booth II, a Scoutmaster for Troop 45 in Salinas, was arrested Monday night without incident, Hansen said. He is being held in county jail on $10,000.

Booth's arraignment was continued to Oct. 21.

According to Hansen, Booth took a 10-year-old boy and 15- and 16-year-old boys to the San Antonio Lake Campgrounds on Saturday. The boys told deputies that they were led to believe it was an authorized troop activity, which it wasn't, Hansen said.

The boys told sheriff's deputy Robert Bryant that Booth gave them alcohol to drink earlier in the night. When the boys went to sleep, Booth allegedly molested the 16-year-old by oral copulation, Hansen said.

Booth has been a Scoutmaster since 1979, said Dean Crafton, the council Scout executive for Monterey County. Crafton said he was unaware of any previous complaints against Booth.

Both Crafton and Hansen stressed that although Booth may have told the boys he was taking them on a Boy Scout camping trip, the trip was not sanctioned by the organization.

"The Boy Scouts mandate that there be two adults along on all official outings," Crafton said. About 16 boys, ranging in age from 11 to 18, are members of Troop 45, which is sponsored by the Salinas Rotary Club.

"We're going to have a meeting Monday and see what we can do to try and keep the troop going," Crafton said.
